

"If you like folk music, actual folk music, you like these two. Their harmonies and hooks are reminiscent of David Was, Mumms and Old Crow Medicine Show, and Lisa McLaggan's unique choice of instrument - a washboard with a cymbal nailed to it - ensures they have their own defining percussion to set them apart from other Maritime folk acts." - Local Pulse www.localpulse.ca

TOMATO TOMATO

I GO WHERE YOU GO

'Tomato/Tomato' are not your garden variety duo. Clever, quirky songs draw on folk and bluegrass, blues and swing with their own interesting twist. An old washboard; rigged up with tin cans and a cymbal rattles while bass and snare drums are foot powered. Loving harmonies, old-timey guitar and up-cycled percussion create an unmistakable sound between these darlings of the Canadian folk scene.

The show is a rollicking rootsy - Canadianna mix with soaring harmonies and joyful arrangements. Tomato/Tomato are masters of feel good folk and will have the audience singing and stomping along to their brand of guitar strung tunes.
